Welcome to 2011

I hope everyone had a great holiday and is warming up their studio and kilns for an exciting 2011. I want to thank everyone for their words of encouragement and I hope to live up to my end of the bargain. Debra may have small feet, but I have some big shoes to fill. I want to thank Debra and any outgoing board members for all the hard work and the great job! Thanks to everyone that has agreed to continue on the board for another year and to the new board members for signing on.

I know the cold weather tends to lead to winter doldrums, but we have some great workshops coming up and everyone should be hard at work making empty bowls! Mark January 16 on your calendar for the next meeting and we will see you there!

Happy Holidays!

Horse Hair Pottery Workshop with Genez Malebranche

10 am, Saturday, April 2nd, 2011

(Rain date, Sunday, April 3rd)
6400 Knotts Island Rd.
Virginia Beach, VA 23457

Create your own horse-hair style pottery with Genez at her home on Knotts Island. Learn to burnish your pieces, mix and apply terra-sigillata, when to spray on ferric chloride, how to fire in both raku and electric kilns, and how to finish your work after firing.

Each participant may bring up to four pieces of bisque-ware for firing. White or light-colored clay shows off the horse-hair patterns better.

Bag lunch? Or pot-luck?
Participants will decide.

$40 per person.

MORE WORKSHOP NEWS

CDA would like to bring in
Paul Andrew Wandless
www.studio3artcompany.com
May 28-29
for a hands on workshop.
The workshop will be held at Virginia Wesleyan Studio.

Paul Andrew Wandless resides in Chicago, IL and is the Assistant Professor of Art at Harold Washington College. He has given Workshops at Penland School of Craft, Visual Arts Center in Richmond, Mudfire Clayworks in Georgia, The Andy Warhol Museum in Pittsburg, and the Potters Council Regional Conference, among others.

He displays his work at various Galleries too numerous to mention.

Paul will be bringing us a two-day hands-on workshop where he will be using hollow-form hand building methods. His workshop will be an introduction to various image transfer techniques. Mono printing, screening and relief printing onto plaster and clay slabs will be covered.

Images, designs and text will be used as a means of personal expression to create compositions. The clay surfaces will be used as canvases for exploration of printed imagery, color and text. The hand building techniques used will be directed at soft and hard slabs to create a variety of forms. Multiple layers of color and texture will be created combining commercial underglazes and slips.

Recommended book for reference: Image Transfer on Clay by Paul Andrew Wandless - can be purchased on Amazon or Barnes and Noble.

Stay tuned for a list of materials required, but Paul will be providing us with an assortment of AMACO underglazes (provided by AMACO), tracing paper & carbon paper, transparent acrylic base, drawing fluid & screen block.
